

EXHIBIT A

| Name | Date of Transcription | Excerpts of Report of Interviews by FBI |
|------|-----------------------|--|
| | | Acevedo Vila never asked Negron any questions about the campaign contributors. For instance, he never asked why all these people from the Philadelphia area with non-Hispanic names were interested in contributing to the campaign of a Puerto Rico politician. Likewise, Acevedo Vila never asked who these people were or commented on Negron's ability to obtain contributions from so many contributors. Negron speculated that Acevedo Vila thought that the money was coming from friends of Negron. Acevedo Vila also never said anything to Negron regarding being concerned about the legality of the contributions. During a trip to New York, Acevedo Vila once simply commented to Negron that the other political party in Puerto Rico does illegal things. |
| | | Sometime after the fund-raiser was held, an article appeared which identified Feldman as being an official in Acevedo Vila's campaign. Acevedo Vila got mad about the article. Acevedo Vila said he appreciated their help, but he also told Negron, "I didn't say you could do this." After Acevedo Vila and Negron talked about the situation, Acevedo Vila said that it was okay for Feldman to use the title as long as it was not official. Negron told Feldman about what Acevedo Vila had said. If Acevedo Vila sent Feldman a letter naming him as an official position in the campaign, Acevedo Vila must have done this because Feldman needed this type of letter for something. |

| Name | Date of Transcription | Excerpts of Report of Interviews by FBI |
|------------------|-----------------------|--|
| | | Negron could not recall Acevedo Vila or Coreano having ever visited Dental One for a meeting in Philadelphia. Some of Acevedo Vila's trips to Philadelphia might have been for him to conduct other business besides just meeting with Negron. For example, Negron might have heard something about Acevedo Vila meeting twice with Philadelphia councilman Angel Ortiz. |
| Ileana Echegoyen | 02/07/2007 | The investigating agents asked ECHEGOYEN if LUISA INCLAN BIRD had ever contacted her regarding TGG. ECHEGOYEN has spoken to BIRD but not ever about TGG. BIRD is a friend of hers. ECHEGOYEN did not speak to BIRD during her tenure as Secretary of VIVIENDA. ECHEGOYEN would sometimes speak to BIRD prior to ECHEGOYEN's term as Secretary of VIVIENDA when BIRD worked for ACEVEDO VILA when he was a Puerto Rico representative. She has more recently spoken to BIRD since ACEVEDO VILA became Governor of Puerto Rico and both BIRD and ECHEGOYEN worked at LA FORTALEZA. BIRD has had no involvement in CIUDADELA. |
| Cándido Negrón | 10/27/2006 | Negron never told Acevedo Vila that he was giving Acevedo Vila straw contributions. Acevedo Vila never asked or discussed with Negron how Negron was able to get so many people in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey areas involved in the campaign of a Puerto Rican politician. Acevedo Vila never acted curious about who these people were that were making large contributions to his campaign. |

| Name | Date of Transcription | Excerpts of Report of Interviews by FBI |
|-----------------------|-----------------------|---|
| | | Negron had very little contact with any of Acevedo Vila's campaigns in Puerto Rico. His main contact with Acevedo Vila's campaigns was Luisa Inclan Bird (Inclan), aka Luisita. Inclan is a lawyer and she is very nice. |
| Javier Quintana | 02/07/2007 | Before Quintana came to work at EAA, OMB was involved in an energy study (1998). After several years, an energy study is usually updated. This especially happens when there is a new government administration as each administration wants to have its own study. Quintana speculated that this might be the reason why OMB hired Judith Mondre (Mondre) to do an energy study. |
| Miguel Vázquez Deynes | 09/27/2006 | When the investigating agents specifically asked Vazquez if he ever personally saw or hear rumors about a binder regarding a possible dental carve-out proposal from Doral, or any other entity, at La Fortaleza, Vazquez said no. He again stated that the first time he heard about Doral Dental was from reading the newspapers during the previous week or two. |
| Michael Griffin | 12/02/2006 | When shown a photographic lineup of nine political figures, including current Puerto Rico Governor Anibal Acevedo Vila, Griffin said he did not recognize anyone. The investigating agents specifically pointed out the person in the lower right hand corner, and informed Griffin that it was Acevedo Vila. Griffin said he still did not recognize him. |